A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Welcome to our Festive Edition!

Christmas happens on the same day every year, and yet we all rush around at the last minute getting ready to celebrate. Many people try to pack the holiday with elaborate parties and extravagant gifts, but we all have hectic schedules and sometimes time and money are in short supply. The best advice is to keep it simple; enjoy the company of friends and family, share some good food and drink, and don't get too stressed if things don't go to plan.

There's always next year!

Winter Solstice occurs on the 22nd of December, the shortest day with the smallest number of daylight hours in the year. This is why it's a traditional time for gathering together, feasting and merriment, and many cultures light fires to celebrate the coming of the light.

Several charities have organised fun events during December. The Alzheimer's Society has Elf Day, an opportunity to dress up on the 6th of December to raise awareness and much-needed funds for research (alzheimersevents.org.uk). The 7th of December is Christmas Jumper Day, an event organised by Save the Children. Wear a festive sweater of your choice and make a donation to the charity (Christmas Jumper Day 2023 | Save the Children UK).

If you could be charitable this festive season - perhaps pay a visit to your elderly relative or a neighbour who might be on their own. Your smile and a chat might be the only interaction they get all week. Let's share the love and the warmth!

As always, we ask you to mention Stonesthrow Directories when calling our advertisers, so we can bring even more special offers from local trades directly to you.

Here are a few of dates for your calendar:

25th December - Christmas Day (Bank Holiday); 26th December - Boxing Day (Bank Holiday); 1st January - New Year's Day (Bank Holiday).

December is a busy time of festive celebration and feasting for most of us, so I'd like to wish all our readers a very Merry Christmas!

Yours, Stonesthrow Publications.

Misty Double Glazing?

Hi My name is Dave Millidge, let me introduce my company where I repair windows and replace misted up Double glazed units.

The area that I cover is Coventry and Warwickshire. You may have seen me around in your street or even have family and friends who I have worked for in the past ten years, with over 6,000 satisfied customers during that period. I started Misty to Clear to give customers the best value repairs in the current climate.

The Misty to Clear website allows total transparency of the customer experience. You can log into the website and view work that I have carried out. You can also leave feedback on social media. Therefore I give a 5 year guarantee on all new double glazed units fitted by Misty to Clear.

This is a genuine guarantee which does not come as an extra to my price.

I started Misty to Clear mindful that the cost of repairs is probably key to most people's budget when using tradesmen to do work on their behalf in their homes.

I offer a lower cost service to both old and new customers as I operate directly for the customer with no additional hidden charges or insurance costs to you the customer.

So my Company name is Misty to Clear where I can offer steamed up window glass replacement and fix broken handles, hinges, seals, window locks and door locks.

I also change glass in Velux windows too.

Satisfaction guaranteed to be a high standard that carries a 5 year manufacturer backed guarantee.

Clearly a great service!

GET YOUR HOME WINTER-READY

As the days get frostier and the nights chillier, it's time to gear up and get your home winter ready. The last thing you want is to be caught off guard. That's why I've whipped up this maintenance checklist to help keep your home safe and snug all winter long.

CHECK YOUR HEATING SYSTEM: First things first, make sure your boiler and central heating system are up for the challenge. Give them a test run to check they're working properly. Bleed those rads and consider booking a boiler service with a Gas Safe engineer, to avoid any unexpected breakdowns.

SEAL THOSE GAPS: Seal gaps around windows, doors, and even electrical sockets. This small step can make a big difference to keep the warmth in and the cold out.

CLEAN THOSE GUTTERS: Those fallen leaves may look lovely, but they can wreak havoc on your gutters. Clean out any debris to prevent clogs that might lead to water damage. While you're up there, check for any loose or damaged gutters and get them fixed up.

ROOF INSPECTION: A solid roof is your first line of defence against the elements. Call in a professional to check your roof for any damaged or missing tiles. It's better to fix a small issue now than to deal with a huge leak later.

FIREPLACE AND CHIMNEY: If you're lucky enough to have a real fireplace, get it ready for those cosy nights in. Make sure the chimney is clear to avoid any smoke or fire hazards and give the fireplace a good clean before lighting it up.

OUTDOOR PLUMBING: Frozen pipes are a big winter headache. Insulate exposed pipes and shut off the water supply to outdoor taps and hoses. Drain any excess water to prevent your pipes freezing, and if you're going away, leave the heating on a low setting to avoid bursts. Insulate, Insulate, Insulate: Insulation is your best friend in winter. Check your walls, floors and loft – heat rises, and you don't want it escaping through the roof.

TEST SMOKE AND CARBON MONOXIDE DETECTORS: Safety first! Test all your smoke and carbon monoxide detectors to make sure they're working properly. With windows and doors closed more often, you'll want to be alerted immediately if there are any issues.

CONSIDER A SMART THERMOSTAT: If you haven't jumped on the smart home bandwagon, now might be the time. A smart thermostat allows you to control your heating remotely, which can be handy if your plans change suddenly.

There you have it, the ultimate winter maintenance checklist! By giving your home a little extra care and attention, you'll be able to enjoy the season without any unnecessary stress. Now, get that checklist ticked off, so you can sit back, relax, grab a mulled wine and enjoy the Xmas festivities without a care in the world!

CONFRONTING SEASONAL

AFFECTIVE DISORDER

Seasonal Affective Disorder or 'winter blues' affects around two million people of any age in the UK each year. How can we confront it and cope this winter.

As the nights get longer, and the days shorter, more and more of us begin to feel a little down, some experience mild winter blues, and others the medical condition Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD). No two people are the same and neither are any two cases of SAD. But there are some easy, free or inexpensive ways to combat and confront Seasonal Affective Disorder.

KEEP ACTIVE!

Much research shows that keeping active when the comfy sofa beckons is one of the best ways of confronting SAD. A walk in the middle of the day could in fact be as helpful as light treatment for coping with the winter blues.

GET OUTSIDE

It might sound too simple but going outdoors in natural daylight is a great way to fight Seasonal Affective Disorder. It works best on bright days but is good even in cloudy wet weather.

KEEP WARM

Being cold makes you more depressed. It has also been shown that staying warm can reduce the winter blues by half. A good way to keep warm is to drink hot drinks and eat hot food. Wear warm clothes – a few layers are best - and warm socks and aim to keep your home at a minimum of 18C.

EAT A HEALTHY DIET

A healthy diet is proven to boost your mood and it will give you more energy. Try and eat plenty of fresh fruit and vegetables.

SEE THE LIGHT!

Most of us have heard of light therapy and one way to do it at home in winter is to sit in front of a light box for up to 2 hours a day. Light boxes give out very bright light at least 10 times stronger than ordinary home and office lighting.

TAKE UP A NEW HOBBY

A new hobby keeps your mind active, and this seems to ward off symptoms of SAD!

SEE YOUR FRIENDS AND FAMILY

It has been shown that socialising is good for your mental health and helps ward off the winter blues. So why not try and keep in touch with people you care about? And accept any invitations!

TALK ABOUT IT

Whether you seek out professional help or the listening ear of a friend, talking can help you cope with symptoms.

JOIN A SUPPORT GROUP

Why not consider joining a support group. Sharing your experience with others can make your symptoms more bearable.

SEEK HELP!

If all else fails, and if your symptoms are so bad that you cannot live a normal life, see your GP for medical help.

Seasonal Affective Disorder can affect many of us, if one of these tips does not work for you, try one of the others.

SHOP LOCAL

THIS CHRISTMAS

It's very easy nowadays to click a button and have goods delivered to your door, but big multinational corporations may not value your custom as much as a local business. By shopping locally, you are supporting homegrown retailers and helping them maintain their place on the high street. Here are a few ideas to help you:

MAKE A LIST AND CHECK IT TWICE: Write down all of the people you'd like to buy a gift for this Christmas and jot down one or two gift ideas for each of them. Make sure you have plenty of time to explore local options and find the perfect gift or order it from a local supplier.

RESEARCH LOCAL BUSINESSES Make a list of stores and shops you'd like to support and ask friends and neighbours for recommendations. Some shops may have a website or social media posts that show the type of goods they have in store, prices, sale items or discounts. Some shops may offer a free local delivery service.

VISIT LOCAL MARKETS Many towns and villages hold craft fairs during the festive season. You could find artists and artisans that make jewellery or design clothes, creating unique handmade gifts from local vendors.

EXPLORE LOCAL ART GALLERIES: You could find a painting, sculpture or other artwork that would be a unique and beautiful gift. If you can't find the ideal present, why not ask a local artist to create a bespoke item?

BUY GIFT CARDS: Some shops may offer a gift card, which is a great way to support them even if you can't decide what to buy. It also allows the recipient to choose their own gift and helps the business with cash flow.

BREWERS, DISTILLERIES AND FARM SHOPS: It may be possible to purchase special tipples and edible gifts from local artisans. Butchers, bakers, and even candlestick makers will produce all manner of regional goodies. Purchasing items from your neighbourhood will help promote community commerce.

CONSIDER A LOCAL RESTAURANT: You could choose a locally owned restaurant for a special meal or purchase a gift card so that friends and family can enjoy a local dining experience.

SUBSCRIPTION BOXES: Some small businesses offer a subscription box service, delivering products on a regular basis for a small fee. This can be a great way to support local entrepreneurs.

PROMOTE ON SOCIAL MEDIA Take photos and videos of your shopping experiences and post it online. By adding hashtags like #shoplocal #SupportLocalBusiness you can encourage others to join in and support their own community.

Shopping locally contributes to the variety of businesses in your neighbourhood, making a positive impact and adding a vibrant variety and uniqueness to the range of shops and stores. Making Christmas a locally sourced event could make all the difference to nearby retailers, and contributing to the local economy will ensure your high street continues to trade throughout the coming year.
